

Style VR1200PW: Basalt Tape

0.040" Thick

REVISED: SEPTEMBER 6, 2011

Made from continuous filament volcanic rock fiber

Engineered to your application, VR1200 is made from continuous filament volcanic rock fiber (basalt) for 1200°F thermal protection. Applications: Aramid, fiberglass, and carbon fiber replacement, laminates, motorsport, and industrial end uses.

Base Material: Continuous Filament Volcanic Rock Fiber

Weave: Plain

Thickness: 0.040" (+/- 10%)

Width: 1.00" & 2.00" Standard (Other widths available upon request, but minimums will apply to special widths)

Roll Length: 100 ft

Service Temperature: 1200°F

